

NORTHWEST BLONDE

classic style in a grunge town

Dear (account manager name or PR Manager if it's a generic email),

My name is (your name) behind the (your location) style blog, (your blog name). I have the opportunity to be in New York during Fashion Week Spring Summer 17/18 and am wondering if there are any seats or SRO tickets left for the (designer name) show on the (date).

I would love to cover the collection on my blog and social media if there are any tickets left available. I know my (x number) readers would love to see and hear more about the collection.

Thank you in advance for considering my request.

Sincerely,

Your Name
